National Nonprofits All Hands and Hearts and Good360 Complete Rebuild and Refurnishing of Baton Rouge Homes

To kick off their new partnership, All Hands and Hearts and Good360 have combined forces to rebuild and refurnish 30 Baton Rouge homes damaged or destroyed by the August 2016 floods. The final phase of this program will conclude the week of February 12 with home furnishings and other needed goods being delivered to the rebuilt homes.

WHO:	Nonprofit partners, Good360 and All Hands and Hearts – Smart Response
WHAT:	Final phase of rebuilding and refurnishing 30 homes for families impacted by the summer 2016 floods
WHERE:	Celtic Media Centre, 10000 Celtic Dr., Baton Rouge, LA STAGE 5 (see map here: http://www.celticmediacentre.com/stages/)
WHEN:	Wednesday, February 14 between 12:00 pm and 2:00 pm (no set program; members of the media welcome at any time between 12 and 2 pm)
WHY:	You are invited to a temporary warehouse area to see first-hand the final phase of a process that identified specific needs of flood-impacted families. Families will arrive throughout the day to sign off on the donations earmarked especially for them.

Representatives from All Hands and Hearts – Smart Response and Good360 will be on hand to provide comments on this rebuilding program and the nature of long-term disaster recovery efforts in the region. Pre-approved, case-managed families will be visiting the temporary warehouse on an appointment basis on this day to receive their home goods.
